Re: Cypress Communications' request to withdraw its tariff in Kentucky

Dear Mr. Derouen:

We represent Cypress Communications Operating Company, LLC ("Cypress"), a Delaware limited liability company with its primary place of business located at 75 Erieview Plaza, Suite 400, Cleveland, Ohio 44114. This letter serves as notice of Cypress's intent to cease operations in Kentucky and also respectfully requests that the Kentucky Public Service Commission (the "Commission") withdraw Cypress's tariff.

Pursuant to Administrative Case No. 359, an interexchange carrier "that ceases to operate shall advise the Commission by letter requesting withdrawal of its tariff." Order (June 21, 1996). Cypress is an interexchange carrier, and Cypress's tariff became effective August 14, 2002. Cypress currently has no customers in Kentucky. Cypress plans to cease all operations in the Kentucky on March 31, 2015.

Therefore, consistent with the requirements in Administrative Case No. 359, Cypress respectfully requests that the Commission withdraw Cypress's tariff in Kentucky.

Thank you, and if you have any questions with regard to this matter, please call me.

Sincerely,

DINSMORE & SHOHL LLP
